Cadogan is delighted to present a new exhibition of works by Gabriele Cappelli. Clean and powerful, Cappelli's abstract geometric forms bring together a classical aesthetic with a contemporary approach to colour and line. Combining soft organic forms with smooth lines and points, his 'Compositions' distil a universal visual language into its purest form.

The inherent sense of balance in the proportion, form and colour of Cappelli's works echoes the rhythms and structures of music, as well as modernist and abstract shapes and textures, re-evoking and revitalising them by combining them with conceptual and visual proponents of contemporary art. His use of pure unadulterated oil paints lends richness to the combinations of soft and bold colours in his compositions, often enhanced by the addition of gold dust. His paintings have a true smoothness to their surface and yet the labour and patience of the artist still appear in the brushstrokes. Depth is created from the flatness of the canvas, asserting the materiality of the artwork itself.

Born in Forlì, Italy in 1972, Gabriele Cappelli moved to London in 1997 and it was here that he decided to pursue his work as an artist. Cadogan has represented Cappelli for ten years and this exhibition will be his fifth with the gallery. His work is widely collected and is held in private collections in the UK, Europe and the US.

‘Each colour lives by its mysterious life.’
