

Artist: Kim Bartelt

Exhibition: Zwischen Tür und Angel

21 May - 21 June

Cadogan Gallery, 87 Old Brompton Road, London, SW7 3LD

Cadogan Gallery is delighted to announce “Zwischen Tür und Angel,” a new exhibition by German artist Kim Bartelt. Developing on from an earlier series based on iconic paintings and sculptures of the Renaissance, in her latest body of work, Kim Bartelt applies her distinct, abstract geometric style to pared down, emotive scenes inspired by the annunciation. These works refer to the German proverb “Zwischen Tür und Angel”, a sense of something happening in a quick, spontaneous manner, often with someone on the threshold of moving on or passing by. That subtle sense of uncertainty, is both emphasised and defied by her deceptively simple language of rectangles and squares. The artist’s unique way to both reduce and accentuate the metaphysical potency so inherent in all her work.

Notes to Editors

“Zwischen Tür und Angel” will be open to the public from the 21 May - 21 June at Cadogan Gallery, London.

About Kim Bartelt

Currently based in Berlin, Bartelt completed a Bachelor of Fine Arts from the Parsons School of Design in New York, and has since regularly exhibited in group and solo shows in Berlin, Paris, and London. Her works have been shown at various art fairs including MiArt, and have been featured in numerous publications. She has been represented by Cadogan Gallery since 2020.

About Cadogan Gallery

Cadogan is an independent contemporary art gallery with spaces in London and Milan. For over forty years our mission has been to represent, support and curate the work of a diverse roster of emerging and established artists. We care deeply about longevity, developing the careers of our artists and the journey of our collectors.

In 1980, we opened the doors to our first gallery in South Kensington, London. In 2023, we added a new international perspective to our distinctive exhibitions programme by opening a gallery in Milan. With an artist-focussed approach and strong aesthetic identity, the new space highlights the works of artists that have evolved with us since the gallery’s founding, as well as a new generation of emerging artists.
